US & INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Everyone, please complete Step 1 by Monday, December 2, 2019
(fee waiver requests for US applicants must submit request and application 7 days earlier).

Please complete Steps 2-3 ONLY if you receive an offer that you will accept.

Step #1: Submit Online to Graduate Admissions Office, UW Graduate School

<https://grad.uw.edu/admissions/apply-now/>

Online Application:

_____ Download and read the 2020 Admissions Application Newsletter:
<https://psych.uw.edu/graduate/prospective-students> (1st item on this page)

_____ Completed online application: <https://grad.uw.edu/admissions/apply-now/>

The application consists of:

1. a few brief questions (some required, some optional),
2. the Statement of Purpose (required),
3. a Personal Statement (optional),
4. a CV (optional),
5. Unofficial electronic/online transcripts uploaded (required where BA/BS or higher degree earned),
6. Three Letters of Recommendation (required) submitted online by your Recommenders,
7. General GRE test scores (required) are sent electronically to the UW by ETS upon your request (institution code 4854, Department code: 5199 any department).

No paper materials are accepted or needed at the time of application.

Please visit the Department of Psychology website for our application materials and templates:
<https://psych.uw.edu/graduate/prospective-students>

_____ Online MasterCard or Visa credit/debit payment for application fee

US Applicants requesting application fee waivers must submit their complete applications at least 7 calendar days in advance of the Monday, December 2, 2019 deadline. Late requests for the waiver are automatically denied. If you have requested an application fee waiver by the earlier deadline, continue to check your listed email for a decision from the Graduate School. If you are approved for an application fee waiver, you must log back into your application and apply the waiver as the "payment" in order to submit your application to the Department of Psychology. Requesting an application fee waiver does not submit your application. Nor does the Graduate School or Department of Psychology submit applications on behalf of applicants who requested fee waivers.

Complete Step #2 ONLY if you have been instructed to by the Department of Psychology (typically this will be if you receive an official offer AND have decided to accept our offer)

Step #2: Mail to Department of Psychology:
Graduate Selections Committee, Department of Psychology,
Box 351525, Seattle, Washington 98195-1525
<https://psych.uw.edu/graduate/prospective-students>

Hardcopy Materials:

_____ One set of official transcripts from collegiate institution(s) attended where a Bachelor's degree or higher has been earned. If your school provides official electronic transcripts, please get in touch with the Psychology Graduate Program before you make the request. If your Bachelor's degree is still in-progress, please wait until AFTER your degree is conferred on the transcript.

Complete Step #3 ONLY if you have received an official offer by Psychology AND have decided to accept our offer

Step #3: Mail or Submit to UW Graduate School:
University of Washington, Graduate Enrollment Management Services
Box 353770, Seattle, WA 98195-3770
<https://grad.uw.edu/admissions/apply-now/>
(after you accept the offer, your application log-in page will display the next steps)

Electronic Materials:

_____ Establish your UW NetID. Your UW NetID and password are your account for accessing your UW information and other online services, such as your UW email (yournetidhere@uw.edu)

_____ Submit $250 online Enrollment Confirmation Deposit (ECD). This will hold your spot with us and be applied to your first quarter of tuition.

_____ International students: The I-20/DS-2019 application is available online to download. Upon completion of the form and supporting documents, please upload them into your online application. If you are currently residing in the US, please mail copies to the Graduate School of the I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility Form) with the F-1 stamp or DS-2019 (Certificate of Eligibility) with J-1 stamp or any current visa status forms issued to you.

Hardcopy Materials:

_____ The Graduate School requires a set of official paper transcripts, mailed directly from your previous institution(s) to the Graduate School address posted above with your final degree conferred. Please do not mail an unopened, official transcript on your own; it MUST come from your institution. If your Bachelor's degree is still in-progress, please wait until AFTER your degree is conferred on the transcript. The Graduate School cannot accept official electronic transcripts. International students, please see more information under the "Transcripts" heading on the page below:

<http://grad.uw.edu/admissions/understanding-the-application-process/general-admissions-faqs/>

_____ Immunization records (<https://wellbeing.uw.edu/medical/immunizations/immunization-requirement/>) which can be emailed or dropped off at UW Hall Health.
