

Undergraduate Honors Research Festival

MAY 24, 2018

UNIVERSITY OF
WASHINGTON

Cheryl Kaiser, Ph.D.
Professor and
Chair

Chantel Prat, Ph.D.
Associate Professor and
Honors Program Advisor

Carrie Perrin
Director, Psychology
Undergraduate Advising

Alya Azman

Sponsor: Sapna Cheryan, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Invisibility Threat: The Consequences of Being Rendered Invisible for Less Prototypical Asian American Subgroups

Alya is pursuing a B.S. in Psychology and will graduate Cum Laude. She is a Mary Gates Research Scholar.

Jessica Cavalli

Sponsor: Sheri Mizumori, Ph.D., Professor

Role of the Lateral Habenula During Decision Making in Rats

A Mary Gates Research Scholar, Jessica will graduate with a B.S. in Psychology. This coming fall, she will begin a graduate program at Oregon State University, pursuing a Ph.D. in Health Psychology.

Lina Chan

Sponsor: Lee Osterhout, Ph.D., Professor

Motivation and ERP Response for Native Chinese Speakers of English

Lina will graduate with a B.S. in Psychology and a Philosophy minor. Following graduation, Lina plans to work as a research assistant.

McKenzie Hagen

Sponsor: Katie McLaughlin, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Child Language Experience as a Mediator of the Relation Between Socio-Economic Status and Executive Function

Following graduation with a B.S. in Psychology, McKenzie's post-graduation plans include working as a lab manager prior to applying to graduate programs. She recently presented a paper at the Psychology Undergraduate Research Conference, at UCLA.

Elyse Janzen

Sponsor: Ellen Covey, Ph.D., Professor

*Perineuronal Net Fibers in the Auditory Cortex of Eptesicus Fuscus, the Big Brown Bat Dependency*

Elyse is a Mary Gates Research Scholar and a Hagenstein Research Travel Scholar. After graduating with a B.S. in Psychology and a Statistics minor, Elyse plans to take a gap year and continue volunteering in the research field prior to applying to graduate programs.

Nadia Kako

Sponsor: Laura Little, Ph.D., Principal Lecturer and Associate Chair

Examining Infant Primate Temperament in Relation to Cognitive Development

Following graduation Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology, Nadia plans to work as a research assistant or lab manager. She has been a member of the Dean's list for 10 consecutive quarters and was nominated to be part of the Husky 100.

Ngaio Lace

Sponsor: Cheryl Kaiser, Ph.D., Professor and Chair

The Effect of Diversity Initiatives on Information Seeking Behaviors

Ngaio plans to pursue a career in either human resources or data science prior to applying to graduate programs in either Social or Industrial/Organizational Psychology. She is a Hagenstein Research Travel Scholar and will graduate Magna Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology. Ngaio was selected by the College of Arts and Sciences to be a gonfalonier (banner carrier) at this year's Commencement Ceremony.

Isabella Lee

Sponsor: Kristina Olson, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Children's Preferences for and Categorization of Race

A Mary Gates Research Scholar, Isabella will graduate Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology.

Su Yi Leong

Sponsor: Yuichi Shoda, Ph.D., Professor

Cultural Model of Family: How the role of family of first-generation college students and continuing-generation college students influence their college experience

Su Yi is a Mary Gates Research Scholar and will graduate Magna Cum Laude with B.A.s in Psychology and Early Childhood and Family Studies. Her post-graduate plans include continuing to work on her research with an eye toward publication.

Kate Luken Raz

Sponsor: Anthony Greenwald, Ph.D., Professor

Implicit Endorsement of Male=Leader Stereotype Attitudes in Children

A member of the UW Interdisciplinary Honors Program, Kate will graduate Magna Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology and a minor in Gender, Women and Sexuality Studies.

Milica Milovanovic

Sponsor: Betty Repacholi, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Red and Anger: The Effect of Red on the Categorization of Anger in Infants

Milica will graduate Magna Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology and a minor in Education, Learning and Societies. Following graduation, she will be staying at UW to pursue a Master's in Teaching with the College of Education's Elementary Teaching Program.

Sanjana Ravi

Sponsor: Kristina Olson, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Children Who Enjoy Social Interactions are More Likely to Help, Share, and Comfort Others

A Hagenstein Research Travel Scholar and the recipient of a UW Research Conference Travel Award and an American Psychological Society Research Conference Travel Award, Sanjana is set to graduate with a B.S. in Psychology and a B.A. in Early Childhood and Family Studies. Her post-graduation plans will take her to the Child Development Lab at the University of Maryland where she will work as a research assistant prior to applying to Ph.D. programs in Child Clinical Psychology.

Sarah Rubin

Sponsor: Lori Zoellner, Ph.D., Professor

Exploring the Relationship Between Trauma Chronicity and Implicit Self-Concept

Sarah will graduate Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology and a Gender, Women and Sexuality Studies minor. She has been a member of the UW Interdisciplinary Honors Program and was recently named one of the Husky 100. Following graduation, Sarah will embark on a fellowship at the National Institutes of Health in the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, researching behavioral endophenotypes in pediatric obesity.

Chen Su

Sponsor: Susan Joslyn, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Effect of Simultaneous Consistency on Forecast Trust

Following graduation Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology and a minor in Philosophy, Chen plans to continue working with her current lab which studies decision-making with uncertainty while preparing to apply to graduate school.

Natalie Upton

Sponsor: Kevin King, Ph.D., Associate Professor

Impulsive Behavior as a Strategic Coping Response to Stress and Negative Mood

Natalie is a Mary Gates Scholar who will graduate Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology and a minor in Spanish. This coming fall, Natalie will enter the Master's in Mental Health Counseling program at Seattle University.

Grace Woodard

Sponsor: Lori Zoellner, Ph.D., Professor

Fear Generalization and Avoidance: Reactions to Ambiguous and Non-Threatening Stimuli Contributing to Anxiety and Stressor Related Disorders

Set to graduate Summa Cum Laude with a B.S. in Psychology, Grace was recently named a President's Medalist, UW's most prestigious academic award. She is also a Hagenstein Research Travel Scholar. Grace's plans following graduation are to work as a research coordinator prior to applying to Ph.D. programs in Clinical Psychology.

Katy Wright

Sponsor: Steven Buck, Ph.D., Professor

Brown Induction and the Snake/Anti-Snake Illusion

Katy will graduate with a B.S. in Psychology. Following graduation, she plans to take a few years off to work before possibly applying to graduate programs.